Holland Lecture Series

Wednesday, October 26

Speaker: Joseph H. Carens

Topic: "The Ethics of Immigration"

In a world of relatively closed borders like ours, citizenship is an inherited status and a source of privilege," says Joseph H. Carens, an advocate of open borders and the author of the 2013 book, The Ethics of Immigration. In the United States, a country built on the concept of immigration, the movement to close our borders and restrict entry for new citizens has never been stronger. Carens is a political theorist who has written several books and over 70 articles or book chapters.

His work explores the broad ethical themes of issues related to immigration, multiculturalism and economic justice, including citizenship, refugees, economic migration and irregular migration. Carens is a professor of Political Science at the University of Toronto and teaches courses on the history of political thought and alternative approaches to political theory.

The Holland Lectures are free and open to the public, but you need to reserve a seat. Go to ticketomaha.com or call 402-345-0606

Some say build a wall. Dr. Joseph Carens says, "Open the borders."

The United States is a country built on immigration, yet the movement to close our borders and restrict entry for new citizens has never been stronger. Dr. Joseph Carens contends that in a world where citizenship is a source of status and privilege, democratic values of freedom and equality ultimately must include a commitment to open borders. Only then will we live up to our most basic principles.

We invite you to hear his provocative, thoughtful, and very timely argument. Dr. Carens is the author of The Ethics of Immigration and is a professor of political science at the University of Toronto. His work explores the broad ethical themes of issues related to immigration, multiculturalism, and economic justice including citizenship, refugees, and economic and irregular migration.

Antique Attic

On Sunday, October 23, The General Crook House Guild will sponsor the annual Antique Attic fundraiser. Vendors will offer antique and vintage collectibles for sale. The event will be held at the Firefighters Hall located at 60th and Grover Streets. Hours are from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. A $2 admission charge will benefit the restoration and preservation of the 1879 General Crook House at historic Fort Omaha. Each admission will also include a ticket for the door prizes.

The Antique Attic "bistro" will provide hot coffee and homemade cinnamon rolls all day. Lunch will be served beginning at 11 a.m. Take-out orders are also available. In order to rent a table and become a "dealer" for a day please contact event chair Sally at 402-496-3923. Vendors will keep all profits on sales.

Save the date and expect to find a hidden treasure at this annual sale and fundraiser!

Eclectic Book Review Club

On October 11, 1949, the Eclectic Book Review Club met for the first time at the Hill Hotel (currently the Kensington Tower) where club member Mrs. John Jesse presented the first review.

Sixty-seven years later and currently meeting at the Field Club of Omaha, the 122 member club is announcing the following fall schedule:

Oct 18 – Astronaut Clayton Anderson will come from Houston, TX, to review his memoir, "Ordinary Spaceman."

Nov 15 – Mike Kelly, World-Herald columnist will review his book, "Uniquely Omaha."

The monthly meetings, which include lunch and a book review, are held at noon at the Field Club, 3615 Woolworth Ave. The cost is $13 per person per month.

October 16th: Janet West, OTOC RETAIN

On Tuesday, November 8th, our nation will head to the polls to elect the leaders that will take our nation into the future. However, there will be many more things on the ballot, including an important decision on the Death Penalty in Nebraska. Janet West from Omaha Together One Community (OTOC) will be joining us as we discuss "Why Nebraska should Retain Repeal of the Death Penalty." Join us and be part of inviting conversation about this critical issue and why OTOC believes we should vote to RETAIN repeal of the Death Penalty in November.

October 23: John Thomas, Q&A on the UCC TODAY!

John Thomas, former General Minister and President of the UCC, will be speaking for Rev. Katie's Installation at First Central, but before the service, he will join us at First Forum with a presentation and Q&A about the UCC Today.

Nebraskans for Solar Public Forum

The Department of Energy's

National Community Solar Partnership

When: October 12, 2016 @ 7:00 pm – 8:30 pm

Where: UNO's Community Engagement Center
Second Floor 6001 Dodge St

The Department of Energy's National Community Solar Partnership will be the topic of discussion on October 12th for Nebraskans for Solar. This is the first in a series of fall events at UNO's Community Engagement Center.

Erin Cheese, Fellow at the U.S. Department of Energy's SunShot Initiative, graduate of Creighton University's Energy Technology Program, and former Nebraskans for Solar Board member for two years will discuss the National Community Solar Partnership and how Nebraskans can get involved.

The partnership works to expand access to community solar throughout the nation, especially in low- and moderate-income households. On July 19, 2016, the White House announced a new goal to enable 1 GW of low- and moderate-income solar by 2020. Nebraskans for Solar is a member of the National Community Solar Partnership. Included in Erin's talk will be information on joining the Partnership and the benefits. Learn more and see a list of Partnership members at www.NebraskansForSolar.org

This event is open to the public and co-sponsored by Creighton Energy Club and Green Bellevue. We've invited special guests, including government leaders and community solar advocates and developers to join the discussion. Refreshments will be served. Reserved parking is available in the lot in front of the Community Engagement Center, near the Durham Bell Tower, and adjacent lots.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS TO HOST HALLOWEEN BENEFIT PARTY

Teens raising money to help children who are deaf or hard of hearing

Job's Daughters Bethel #1 of Papillion will host a Halloween party to raise money for the HIKE Fund on Saturday, Oct. 15 from 7:00 pm to 11:00 pm at the Papillion Masonic Center.

The third annual Halloween event will start with activities and games designed for children ages 9 and under. Kids will enjoy interactive party games, storytelling, crafts, face painting and Halloween-themed food, starting at 7:00 pm until 8:30 pm. At 8:30 pm, youth ages 10 and up are welcome to attend a Halloween dance. Costumes and encouraged for all attendees.

The cost to attend is $10. Portions of the proceeds from the event will go to the HIKE Fund, the Job's Daughters official philanthropy which helps children who are deaf or hard of hearing purchase assistive hearing devices.

The event will be held in the lower level of the Papillion Masonic Lodge, 8411 Centennial Road, Papillion. Certified adult volunteers will be present to supervise all activities.

Unlock the past at Omaha Public Library's Genealogy Lock-In

Learn more about one of the best genealogy collections between Chicago and Salt Lake City by attending a program designed for anyone interested in genealogy. Omaha Public Library (OPL) and the Greater Omaha Genealogical Society (GOGS) will host the 8th annual Genealogy Lock-In on Friday, Sept. 30, 6:30-9 p.m., W. Dale Clark Main Library, 215 S. 15th St.

Library staff and GOGS members will be available to help participants open the doors to their past by discovering genealogical treasures in the Library's collection and online. Speaker Phyllis Ericson, president of the Lincoln-Lancaster County Genealogical Society, will present "Preserving History: Ghost Towns of Families Past." Tours will be offered and refreshments will be served.

"There are so many resources available at the library for discovering one's family history," said librarian Martha Grenzeback. "OPL would like to show people how to use online databases, special collections, and more to learn more about their past."

Participants are encouraged to bring laptops and flash drives if desired, and a valid Omaha Public Library card. Computer guest passes will be available for participants who are not residents of Douglas County. Advanced registration is required at omahalibrary.org or 402-444-4826. For more information, visit bit.ly/genealogy_lockin.

This year's event will help to kick off Family History Month in October. OPL has planned a series of events to help family researchers of all experience levels uncover their past. All events are free, but registration is required at omahalibrary.org or by contacting the hosting location. For those who can't make it to a scheduled activity, there are still many opportunities to begin or continue researching family history using OPL's extensive genealogy resources, such as MyHeritage, Ancestry Library Edition, and the Gilbert M. and Martha H. Hitchcock Omaha World-Herald Digital Archive.

Visit guides.omahalibrary.org/genealogy to learn more about OPL's genealogy department.

Murder Ballad—October 14 to November 20

Murder Ballad is an intimate musical with an indie rock style that tells the dramatic tale of a love triangle gone wrong. Sara, a young mother and wife, seems to have it all but longs for her dangerous past. As she begins a love affair with an old boyfriend, events unfold, and the audience is along for the ride with every twist of the story.

Hawks Mainstage Theater

Sister Act—September 16 to October 16

Based on the 1992 blockbuster movie and featuring original music by eight-time Oscar winner Alan Menken, this uplifting musical is filled with toe-tapping songs, show-stopping dance numbers and a truly touching story. After witnessing her mafia boyfriend commit a crime, nightclub singer Deloris Van Cartier seeks help from the local police.

She is placed in the witness protection program in the last spot her boyfriend would think to find her—a convent!

Struggling to fit in with a group of nuns, Deloris finds her calling working with the convent choir.

Hudson River turns to blood, and the entire state of Ohio

comes down with a bad case of boils, Brandon grabs

Rebecca and tries to make it from New York City to Arkadelphia, Arkansas in hopes of finding the New Jerusalem. Revelation explores faith, love, and the American landscape in a pitch black comedy about End Times.

The Resistible Rise of Arturo Ui—Sept 22 to October 16

Arturo Ui is a witty and savage satire of the rise of

Hitler—recast by Brecht into a fictional, small-time

Chicago gangster's takeover of the city's greengrocery trade in the 1930s. The satirical allegory combines black comedy and overt moralism. Using a wide range of parody and spoof - from Al Capone to Shakespeare's Richard III and Goethe's Faust - Brecht's compelling parable continues to have relevance wherever totalitarianism appears today.

A Joslyn Castle Festival Celebrating Nebraska Art and Literature

A Joslyn Castle Festival Celebrating Nebraska Art and Literature will be held this October 19 – 28, 2016.

A Joslyn Castle Festival Celebrating Nebraska Art and Literature is packed with events, and is a collaborative effort with the support of Metropolitan Community College's Theatre Department, the Museum of Nebraska Art, and The Willa Cather Institute. Featured events include:

A celebration of Nebraska Art on October 19 with the official opening of an exhibit of Grant Tyson Reynard's work, a discussion with the Kent Bellows Mentoring Program and an introduction to the work of Eugene Kingman.

An evening with Legacy Preservation on October 20 featuring the authors of various books and the unveiling of an original portrait of George A. Joslyn in honor of the 100th anniversary of his death.

On Friday, October 21, the 13th U.S. Poet Laureate, Ted Kooser, will spend an evening at the Castle reading his poetry, sharing his experience, and how Nebraska influences and inspires his work.

A free book club in partnership with the Omaha Public Library on Saturday, October 22. Jonis Agee will be on hand to discuss her latest book, The Bones of Paradise.

Closing out the festival will be The Scribe of Webster County: Willa Cather on Stage –performance on October 22, 23, 25, 27 & 28. Guests to this theatrical production will move throughout the Castle and experience Willa Cather's words in a unique way. A pre-performance discussion with The Willa Cather Institute will precede the October 27 show.

A full listing of events and performances along with ticket pricing and purchase options is available at www.joslyncastle.com/events or by calling 402.595.2199.

Proceeds from the festival benefit the ongoing restoration and preservation of the Joslyn Castle. The festival is possible with the support of many including the Nebraska Arts Council / Nebraska Cultural Endowment and Humanities Nebraska.

The Castle is open to the public on the first and third Sunday of each month, and tours are conducted at 1, 2, and 3 p.m. The Castle is also open by appointment for tours as well, and it may be rented for private events. For more information regarding the Castle, please visit our website at www.joslyncastle.com.
